LITERARY CONTEST

Celebrating Over 50 Years of Promoting the Arts in NC

The role today of The Raleigh Fine Arts Society remains as it was in 1965: To encourage the pursuit of art, music and the written word. That means identifying, supporting and recognizing creative people and helping assure their work is seen, heard and appreciated.

This organization has established and nurtured the essential links among those who support these

YES YOU CAN!

...m and ...e there ...ine Arts S ...ha ...vel, ...ity of projects support ...the arts. In addition, members have access to special exhibitions, gatherings and tours. The Raleigh Fine Arts Society has historically made many significant contributions to the arts in the Wake County community.

In celebration of Raleigh Fine Arts Society's 50th anniversary, the organization sponsored free rides at Pullen Park's historic Carousel all day Saturday, April 23, 2016.

Popcorn, drinks and over 3000

Carousel rides were enjoyed on a beautiful day.

Check out these other links by clicking on them.

Only you can access this page.

The "Members Only" section is truly a "treasure trove" of information!

6. Members Only Section

Since you're already logged in, all you have to do is click here.

From this section of the site, you have your choice of the many menus providing you with information about every aspect of RFAS with just a click of the mouse.

Each of the categories to the left (accessed from the Members Only page) is available to you by just clicking on it. When those pages open, they contain additional links that will provide you with just about everything you could possibly want to know about RFAS and its activities. You'll be amazed at the wealth of information waiting for you once you "take the plunge".

Once you get started, we promise you'll love exploring the site. No more cries of 'I can't use the web site'. We know better...
